

Eisenhower Says Charges Against Rule "Misleading"

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower took issue with the Harrison report which asserted that treatment of Jews and other displaced persons in American occupied Germany was about the same accorded them under the Nazi regime.

The White House released Eisenhower's letter to President Truman, replying to a recent report by Earl G. Harrison, U. S. representative on the Inter-Governmental Committee on Refugees, on conditions in the American zone.

Eisenhower, commanding general of U. S. forces in the European theater, termed "definitely misleading" a statement that "our military guards are now substituting for SS troops."

Practice and Policy

"At the time of Mr. Harrison's report," Eisenhower wrote, "there were perhaps 1,000 Jews still in their former concentration camps. These were too sick to be moved at that time. No Jewish or other displaced persons have been housed in these places longer than was absolutely necessary for medical quarantine and recovery from acute illness. It has always been our practice, not just our policy to remove these victims with the utmost speed from concentration camps."

Harrison's report, the general contended, "gives little regard to the problems faced, the real success attained in saving the lives of thousands of Jewish and other concentration camp victims and repatriating those who could and wished to be repatriated, and the progress made in two months to bring these unfortunates who remained under our jurisdiction from the depths of physical degeneration to a condition of health and essential comfort."

Preference to D. P.

Displaced persons, Eisenhower said, have "absolute preference" over Germans for housing, but supply, medical and welfare problems "make it desirable that displaced persons be sufficiently concentrated that these services may be performed efficiently by the limited supervisory personnel and transport at our disposal."

Eisenhower said he had personally witnessed the "expressed gratitude" of many displaced persons for the care they had received.

He described his letter as his "full report on matters pertaining to the care and welfare of the Jewish victims of Nazi persecution" in the United States zone.

"Since Mr. Harrison's visit in July," the general said, "many changes have taken place with respect to the condition of Jewish and other displaced persons."

Crowded Conditions

"Except for temporarily crowded conditions, the result of shifts between established centers and an influx of persons into centers as winter approaches, housing is on a reasonable basis."

"Nevertheless, efforts to improve their condition continue unabated. Subordinate commanders are under orders to requisition German houses, grounds, and other facilities without hesitation for this purpose."

Losses From Bombing

Eisenhower estimated that villages and towns in the American zone will be required this winter "to house more than twice their normal population." He said 1,500,000 German air raid refugees who were evacuated into southwestern Germany, together with some 600,000 other persons who fled from Poland, New Poland, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia before advancing Red armies have created a congestion requiring careful conservation of housing space.

"At this moment," the letter continued, "the letter continues."

Jap Declares All Carriers In Sneak Attack Were Sunk

By HAMILTON FARON

Tokyo, Oct. 16 (AP)—A Japanese navy captain disclosed today that crews of six Japanese Aircraft Carriers which struck the war-breeding blow at Pearl Harbor thought they were on a training mission until the day before the assault.

Capt. Mitsue Fuchida, "supreme commander" of the carriers' flight groups, said in an interview that all six had been sunk since the Dec. 7, 1941, strike, and that "I believe I am the only one left" of the sneak attack group, "but there might be some others I've lost track of."

The carriers were the Akagi, Kanga, Soryu and Hiryu, sunk in the battle of Midway June 4-6, 1942; the Shokaku, sunk in the battle of the Marianas, and the Zuikaku, destroyed in the second battle of the Philippines.

Fuchida said the Pearl Harbor attack force also included two battleships, three cruisers, four destroyers, four flotillas of four ships each and eight tankers.

This fleet, Fuchida related, sailed from the Chi Shima islands Nov. 26, 1941, with most men aboard believing they were on a training operation. Then, "the bows were heading east and the men began to wonder and speculate," he said. On

100 LOCAL WAR PRISONERS AT LETTERKENNY

A detachment of local German prisoners of war, with American guard complement, has been assigned to Letterkenny Ordnance Depot, Chambersburg, as a labor unit, it was announced today by Brig. Gen. John W. Coffey, depot commander.

The detachment, consisting of 100 men in command of Capt. John J. Mullings, arrived at the depot at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon and was assigned quarters in a stockade established in the depot troop area, no longer occupied by American troops.

The Germans will be used at Letterkenny only on work for which there are no appropriated government funds, and under no circumstances will they be used for work where civilian labor is available. General Coffey emphasized in announcing the assignment of the men to Letterkenny, "No civilian worker at Letterkenny will be released due to the presence of this unit. Due to the recent departure of the depot's battalion of Italian Service Unit workers, Letterkenny was confronted with a labor shortage which will be alleviated to some extent by the German prisoners of war."

On Different Status

Since this detachment will be composed of regular prisoners of war under unequal status, their activities and administration will be under a different plan than were those of Italian Service Unit members.

"This detachment of German prisoners of war has proven to have been highly satisfactory as a labor unit at all other places where it has been used," General Coffey stated. Letterkenny is exceedingly fortunate in being able to get them to perform a great deal of work that must be done at this time. The work that these men will do will be of benefit to all personnel and the depot, work which would be impossible to accomplish without them."

105 PERSONS AT ROTARY SILVER JUBILEE DINNER

One hundred and five members and guests of the Gettysburg Rotary club gathered Monday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg, where the first assembly of prospective charter members for the local service club was held 25 years ago, to celebrate the club's silver anniversary.

President James S. Cairns and 13 past presidents in attendance helped light the 25 candles on a big birthday cake at the speakers' table. Specially honored were the four charter members who were present from among the original 20 who formed the Gettysburg Rotary club.

The guest speaker was Mayor Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin of Baltimore.

Official greetings and congratulations from Rotary International were conveyed by Rotary District Governor Philip Deane, of York, who lauded the local club for its record of "25 years of good fellowship, friendship and accomplishments in your community."

Present Greetings

President William Beckner, of the York club, which sponsored the formation of the Gettysburg club in 1920, assured the assembly that "Papa is proud" of its Gettysburg "offspring" while President Walter Crouse of the Littlestown Rotary club and Roland E. S. Swan, secretary of the Hanover club, brought greetings from their clubs. Littlestown was sponsored by the Gettysburg club and Littlestown in turn sponsored the formation of the Hanover club.

With President Cairns presiding the program got underway with the singing of "America" after which O. H. Benson delivered the invocation. While the clubmen and their wives and other guests enjoyed a roast turkey dinner, there was music by the Spring Garden Ensemble of York.

Past presidents of the club who were present were introduced in this order and each lighted a candle on the birthday cake: M. C. Jones, the club's first president; Samuel G. Spangler, Edmund W. Thomas, E. V. Bullett, Esq., Frederic E. Griest, H. Wilbur Baker, J. Price Oyler, J. I. Burgoon, Charles L. Elcholtz, Dr. Rasmus S. Saby, Paul A. Kinsey, Dr. Frederick Tilberg, Walter T. Africa and President Cairns. Vice President Dr. Chester N. Gitt was in charge of the ceremony at the birthday cake and lighted a candle for each absent or deceased past president as the names were called.

As waitresses cut the cake which then was served to the diners, the group sang "Happy Birthday."

Baltimore Mayor Speaks

The names of the charter members of the club were read but only four were present. Eight are deceased. Those present were Messrs. Jones, Thomas, Griest and Gitt.

There was special music by the string ensemble and group singing was led by President Beckner of the York club and Dunning Idle, Jr., of the Gettysburg club.

Guests were introduced who, in addition to the visiting Rotarians, included Walter E. Beuchelt, secretary to Mayor McKeldin.

The address by Mayor McKeldin was well received by the clubmen and their guests. Using many illustrations, most of them humorous to emphasize the more serious message, he listed as "The Six Greatest Words" these quotations: "Know thyself," from Socrates; Cicero's advice, "Control thyself," and the Galilean's exhortation, "Give thyself."

President Cairns specially thanked the club's committee on the anniversary arrangements: Doctor Gitt, Doctor Tilberg and Past President Africa. The program concluded with the singing of the national anthem.

Driver Is Blamed In Car-Truck Crash

One driver was slightly injured and damage estimated at about $350 was caused when a car and a truck collided this morning at 9 o'clock 100 feet south of the Hampton square. Hoffman was headed south on Route 94 and was preparing to make a left turn toward the Kline garage when the front of his machine collided with the front of a truck operated by Frank Strausbaugh, Hanover. Strausbaugh was taken to the office of a Hanover doctor for treatment.

The information against Hoffman is being filed before Justice of the Peace David Hykes, Reading township.

JAPAN AS AN "EVIL POWER" IS "CRUSHED"

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

MacArthur's epitaph for broken Japan is so starkly realistic that it brings one up with a jolt:

"This ends its military might and its military influence in international affairs. It no longer reckons as a world power, either large or small."

Thus perishes an evil power which for almost a hundred years increasingly dominated the Orient until finally grieved impelled it to overreach itself in an effort to master and enslave not only its neighbors but to conquer great countries of the western world. We have realized, of course, that Japan has suffered complete defeat, but we are so close to this epochal event that it is difficult to sense its true immensity.

"Utterly Smashed"

Nippon has been utterly smashed. Not only that but she has been deprived of her ill-got gains and thrust back into her tiny island kingdom. She now lacks the resources to recover anything approaching her former position.

China is a logical successor, but it will be long before she could assume the crown, for she is terribly weak in all categories excepting one—the magnificent spirit which enabled her to hang on in face of the Jap onslaught.

China has a monumental task ahead of her. She must repair the terrible ravages of her long war, she must rehabilitate and greatly expand her industries, and she still has to go through the pioneering days in developing the far reaches of a country which is so vast as to be unwieldy.

Red Influence Spreads
The Soviet Union is extending its influence methodically in the Asiatic sphere. Japan's defeat is rendering this far easier.

This is no time for prophesy as to what will come out of the Oriental melting-pot, but we shall indeed be short-sighted if we don't recognize that Russia may be the power which will rush into the vacuum created by Japan's elimination. I wouldn't bet a plugged penny against a dollar that this wouldn't happen.

RELIEF LOAD SAME AS 1944

The relief load in Adams county for the last month has been close to the relief requirements here a year ago, it was disclosed at the October meeting of the county Board of Public Assistance Monday evening.

Mrs. Verna Myers, executive director, submitted reports showing a total current load of 655 cases, one more than was being carried at the comparable date last year. Because of a change in classification of assistance rendered some types of cases, there has been a slight increase in the number of old age pension cases and a corresponding decrease in the general assistance cases.

The current load includes 458 old age assistance cases, 77 cases in which pensions for the blind are paid, 79 cases of aid to dependent children and 41 cases of general assistance.

The next meeting of the assistance board was set for November 13 at 7:30 p. m.

Members were invited to attend the regional conference of the Pennsylvania Welfare conference to be held here October 23.

JAPS ORDERED SUICIDE BLOWS IN JULY 1944

By DUANE HENNESSY

Tokyo, Oct. 16 (AP)—Japan's war machine was so crushed as early as July, 1944, that imperial general headquarters ordered all branches of the armed services to "become thoroughly indoctrinated" in suicide attacks "at once."

This was disclosed today at General MacArthur's headquarters, which long had been informed on the Japanese frame of mind through captured documents.

While kamikaze was a symbol to Americans of Japanese aerial suicide attacks, it was not restricted to the air. An outstanding example was tanks. The Japanese realized that their anti-tank tactics were weak, due to inferior equipment. With their total disregard for human life, they organized suicide assault units.

Suicide tactics were not confined to the air or tank corps. An imperial general headquarters pamphlet seized at a battlefield headquarters in July, 1944, ordered:

Blanket Orders

"In view of the present situation it is absolutely necessary that all of the armed services understand suicide warfare which enables a single person to destroy an airplane, a warship or a tank and thus crush the stubborn enemy who relies upon material superiority.

"All concerned must become thoroughly indoctrinated in this method at once."

Japanese soldiers were not always willing deliberately to sacrifice their lives in anti-tank suicide tactics, which were far different from dying in wild banzai charges. Proof of this reluctance came from, among others, Superior Pvt. Yoshimobu Hanazawa, who said "suicide men were picked from the companies and not all were volunteers. They waited with fear that they might be chosen. They did not want to go."

Threaten Officers

A Colonel Yokoyama issued the following order to his men:

"You will voluntarily jump on the tank and throw a hand grenade inside or stab the occupant with your bayonet. Every non-commissioned officer and man will cooperate by sacrificing his life for the imperial army.

"Even though you are a patient (wounded) you should not hesitate to advance. X X X Educate everyone so that he would rather die on the battlefield in glory than withdraw."

Japanese willingness to sacrifice human life at any time was seen in this revision of military law:

"A commanding officer who surrenders his troops to the enemy in combat even though he has done his utmost will be sentenced to a minimum of six months imprisonment."

Marines Deliver Korean Of Child

Hakata, Japan, Oct. 16 (AP)—The job of U. S. Marines policing southwestern Japan has been complicated by the rush of 1,500,000 Koreans from Japanese farms, mines and factories to this port to await transportation home.

Floating in at the rate of 500 a day, the formerly impressed workers are posing a problem for occupation authorities. The Koreans live in a state of filth and squalor in Hakata's dock area, but there have been no demonstrations or trouble. One example of the emergencies that beset the Marines:

Marnie guard Sgt. C. E. Downey of Greensburg, Pa., heard the screams of a Korean woman in childbirth. He quickly rustled hot water and summoned Pharmacist's Mate 2-c William H. Swift of Dunellen, N. J., who delivered her child. Sentries Pvt. Otto M. Peterson of Two Rivers, Wis., and Pfc. Erving Hefley of Kelso, Wash., brought up fresh milk in a beer bottle with an improvised nipple. The father of the baby kissed the hands of the Americans, with tears in his eyes.

Eisenhower

Continued, "The U. S. zone is under orders to absorb 152,000 more Germans from Austria. Added to this influx of population, there is the loss of housing in bombed-out cities, averaging well over 50 per cent; the necessity for billeting large numbers of our troops; and the accommodation required for prisoners of war."

He said that although he had found crowded conditions on recent inspections of Jewish centers, "in nearly every instance more than 30 square feet per person of floor space required for our soldiers was available."

Eisenhower said that one reason for limiting the numbers permitted to leave army assembly centers "was depredation and banditry by displaced persons themselves."

"Despite all precautions," he continued, "more than 2,000 died from drinking methylated alcohol and other types of poisonous liquor. Many others died by violence or were injured while circulating outside our assembly centers."

Change Procedure In Selling Cars

Effective October 22, sellers of used passenger automobiles, rather than the purchasers, hereafter will be required to file certificates of transfer with local OPA War Price and Rationing Boards, Walter C. Young, District OPA Director, announced today.

When gasoline was being rationed, he added, it was necessary for the purchaser of an automobile to go to his local rationing board to obtain a gasoline ration book. At the same time, the purchaser usually filed a purchaser's statement in which the price he paid for the car appeared.

208,000 STATE MINERS IDLE

Pittsburgh, Oct. 16 (AP)—More than 208,000 soft coal diggers were idle in six states today as word came from Washington that the eight-day parley between coal operators, Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach and UMW President John L. Lewis had come to a dead end.

LABOR PICTURE DIMS AS COAL PARLEY FAILS

(By The Associated Press)

The nation's labor disputes, numbering at least 135, kept some 385,000 workers from their jobs today, the lowest total this month, but the general labor picture was not bright. The darkest cloud came out of Washington in the form of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach's announcement of the collapse of the conference to settle the critical soft coal strike.

In New York city, where a 16-day strike of AFL Longshoremen has virtually paralyzed shipping in the world's biggest harbor, there was reported violence within the union ranks and by CIO unionists, as extra police were ordered to the waterfront.

On the bright side was the resumption of service to some 1,000,000 New England bus and trolley riders as buses, under control of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, began rolling after a three-day strike of 1,800 eastern Massachusetts street railway employees.

No Government Seizure
Although the government in 10 days of meetings failed to get the soft coal operators and John L. Lewis' united mine workers to agree over the recognition of the mine foreman's union, the labor secretary said he still held hope of solving the dispute. He said negotiations had adjourned "subject to call," and he was not going to recommend government seizure of the pits.

He added the way was left open for resumption of negotiations but he did not know of any prospects. The conciliation session adjourned last night, Schwellenbach said, after the operators rejected five separate proposals for settlement.

Meanwhile, the scarcity of fuel in many of the strike areas brought further curtailment to steel and other industries, and threatened to close three large Pittsburgh high and junior high schools. Cold weather in western Pennsylvania may also force some churches to close by the end of the week, a coal merchants' association spokesman said.

Workers Furloughed
Thousands of steel workers have been furloughed and production in several big mills has been cut as much as 28 per cent. Three major Cincinnati industries either halted or curtailed production because of the coal shortage. Strikes are in progress in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Tennessee and Indiana.

Violence was reported in the 16-day old strike of dockworkers in New York harbor, which has virtually halted all out-bound shipping, and hundreds of extra police were ordered to patrol duty along the big waterfront today. The additional squads of police came after rival factions within the AFL International Longshoremen's association charged each other with violence and use of "goons" as intimidators. Mayor La Guardia warned "there will be no rough stuff on the waterfront."

TAFT BACKING VINSON PLAN

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Treasury got unexpected support today from Senator Taft (R-Ohio) for its preferred tax cutting plan.

Taft told a reporter before the Senate Finance Committee began its second day of hearing that he likes the way Secretary Fred M. Vinson wants to go about easing the drain on citizens' pocketbooks. The House cut $5,350,000,000 off prospective 1946 tax bills. Vinson's reductions added up to $5,175,000,000. But the House didn't do it his way.

Taft said he thought Vinson had worked out a pretty good program. The Treasury secretary wants the excess profits tax ended next January 1. The House voted to reduce it, but keep it until Jan. 1, 1947. Vinson wanted the normal income tax on individuals repealed. The House did it another way that seemed to give those with larger incomes a break.

"I'm in favor of getting rid of the excrescences first and not just handing out tax reductions to certain groups," Taft asserted. He meant, he said, the elimination first of the abnormal taxes that bulged out in the war.

Taft, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and others have questioned, however, whether this is the time to cut down some of the wartime "luxury" taxes.

War Crimes Tribunal Session Is Postponed

Berlin, Oct. 16 (AP)—The first formal session of the international war crimes tribunal, which was to have received indictments against 24 top-ranking Nazis Monday, has been postponed for three days at the request of Russian representatives.

R. A. Rudenko, chief prosecutor for the Soviet Union, notified the court Sunday that it had been impossible to complete translation of the 35,000-word document in time and asked for a delay.

After the indictments are handed up, the court is expected to adjourn

Favor Channelling U. S. Funds Thru State

Harrisburg, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Pennsylvania aeronautics commission was expected to reiterate its stand today that federal funds for airport development be channelled through existing state agencies rather than have Washington make grants directly to local communities.

Floyd Chalfant, secretary of commerce and commission chairman, said the commission will discuss an amendment to the LEA bill now before Congress which carries out the commission's viewpoint.

The commission also planned action on any pending applications for airport licensing and for financial aid from local communities for the planning and development of airports under its 10-year program. The 1949 legislature appropriated $2,725,000 to the commission to aid local communities on a dollar-sharing basis.

COOPER URGES GUARANTEE OF PRESS FREEDOM

Boston, Oct. 16 (AP)—Calling attention to tendencies toward government control of radio, press and motion pictures, Kent Cooper, executive director of The Associated Press, today urged the public to demand of those in power a guarantee that freedom of the press will be extended throughout the world.

Speaking at the Boston conference on distribution, Cooper asserted that "press freedom everywhere is essential for the future welfare of mankind," and that a universal free press "can develop into the world's antidote for the employment of the atomic bomb."

He referred briefly to the recent government anti-trust suit against the AP with the observation that "the cause of truthful international news exchange and the right to print it in every land . . . greatly transcends anything that can happen to The Associated Press."

News Power Not Sought
In the radio case, he explained, "we have freedom of speech into the homes of the land through the medium of radio definitely channelled for regulation by a government commission." Only last week, he said, "the trial of the government suit against eight motion picture distributors began in the federal court in New York."

He explained that "no attempt so far has been made by the government through the courts or by the courts to assert editorial powers over the news. The Associated Press delivers in spite of its successful legal intervention in its affairs."

"In explanation of its efforts to make The Associated Press service available to any one who wants it the government distinctly disavowed its intention to gain control of the news report. Nevertheless, it is obvious, as in the case of radio, that the powers now in the hands of the administration are of fundamental and far-reaching importance and that they are definitely not based on any expressed grant by Congress."

Defend Rights
"It is for you to find out whether the government is moving to control the avenues to our minds as is the case in other countries. It is for you to reflect upon whether the government is to define what our actions are to be instead of us controlling what the actions of the government are to be."

"All the rights enumerated by the Constitution must be fervently defended. But man, being what he is, and his methods of communicating his thoughts one to another being what they are, the very keystone of our liberty is freedom of print. . . . It is the printed record which implements and secures the other freedoms, namely: Freedom of religion, of speech and assembly."

to Nuernberg for the opening of the trials, the date for which will be set later.

The defendants will be given 30 days in which to prepare their cases, and it is anticipated that the trials will start shortly after the elapse of that time—probably before the end of November.

WORTHLESS JAP MONEY USED TO PLUNDER CHINA

Tokyo, Oct. 16 (AP)—Printing presses backed by Japanese bayonets deluged China with worthless currency adding up to about 54,000,000,000 U. S. dollars in face value, the Tokyo newspaper Asahi said today.

The figure was the first to be published indicating the degree of financial plundering of Japanese-occupied territories by Japanese militarists. It was disclosed by the newspaper in its demands on the imperial government to curb inflation.

Notes totaling 4,000,000,000 yuan were issued by the Central Reserve Bank of China, financial agency backed by the Japanese militarists, the newspaper said.

No Gold Backing
This sum, at the official rate of five yuan to one yen, equalled 300,000,000,000 yen, or nearly 20 times the war-time homeland note output of the Bank of Japan, which contributed much to inflation in Nippon. The current rate is 15 yen to one U. S. dollar.

The notes probably are the largest, but by no means the sole part, of worthless wartime currency which the Japanese issued without a single ounce of gold backing. The Central Reserve Bank of China served central China, including Shanghai.

Other banks were established for north and south China, Malaya, the Netherlands East Indies, the Philippines, Indo-China and Siam, in addition to the long-existing note issuing banks of Manchuria, Korea and Formosa.

Financial Headache

Asahi, in demanding inflation curbs, detailed the following additional financial headaches in store for Japan:

1—Reparation payments, which have not yet been determined but which will represent a "large figure as a state burden."

2—Indemnities for war-damaged munitions industries within Japan, estimated to exceed 100,000,000,000 yen. The newspaper said "this threatens to develop into a hot political issue because it is calculated to relieve financial plutocrats at the sacrifice of the people."

3—State help to semi-official overseas companies, including the Central Reserve Bank of China which issued the militarist-backed currency.

STATE GUARD WILL CONTINUE

Harrisburg, Oct. 16 (AP)—The present Pennsylvania state guard will be maintained at its full strength of 6,000 until such time as the 28th Division has been reactivated as a national guard unit.

Governor Martin, in announcing plans for the continuation of the state guard yesterday called attention to a directive of Major General Milton G. Baker, commanding general of the guard, that "no grounds whatever existed for the belief that the guard would shortly be disbanded."

On the contrary Martin emphasized that there "is still need for experienced men, preferably discharged soldiers, to augment its personnel."

Martin said he did not anticipate that the 28th Division would revert back to state control before 1947, adding that "in the meantime the Pennsylvania guard must continue to function as efficiently as it has during the past four years."

SEEK TO CURB UPRISINGS IN DUTCH INDIES

Batavia, Java, Oct. 16 (AP)—Dr. Hubertus van Mook, lieutenant governor of the Dutch East Indies, acted Monday to quell uprisings which imperiled one of the richest colonial empires in the world and offered to negotiate a truce with Indonesian rebel leaders.

Aneta, official duty news agency, quoted Dr. Van Mook as stating that he was willing to meet with leaders of all groups in Indonesia, including Soekarno, self-styled president of the "Indonesian republic."

In a dispatch from the Hague, Omata said that A. W. L. Tjarda van Starkenborgh Stachouwer had resigned as governor general because he was "unable to be the bearer of the government policy" in the Indies. He arrived in the Hague early last month, after being liberated from a Japanese prison camp.

Threaten 50,000

(A Reuters dispatch quoting Batavia reports said 50,000 Dutch women and children had been "surrounded by wildly excited Indonesians in the area of Batavia and were completely cut off from Allied forces." The dispatch added that the women and children "are being held virtually as hostages" and that the natives "are said to be inspired by the Japanese."

(An authoritative source in London said the British government had agreed to "make ships available" to rush Dutch troops from Europe to Java.)

New outbreaks were reported from the interior of Java, as armed rebel bands closed upon this city. Acting to maintain order, British Maj. Gen. D. C. Hawthorn, Allied commander, invoked a death penalty in Batavia for looting, sabotage, the

20-Year-Old Prisoner Is Fatally Stabbed

Norristown, Pa., Oct. 16 (AP)—A 20-year-old prisoner of Graterford branch of the Eastern State Penitentiary died Monday with the handle of an eight-inch scissors blade in his back.

None of the inmates, waiting in line with him for breakfast, nor the guard, standing 100 feet away, could name the assailant, chief of Montgomery county detectives Kaye Munshower said.

The victim, Stanley P. Cohowics, of Old Forge, Pa., fell headlong to the floor a short distance from his cell. The scissors blade had entered his back at the shoulder blade, severed a large artery and gone into the heart, Munshower said.

Cohowics was sentenced May 26, 1945, to serve five to 10 years for burglary. He was transferred from Eastern Penitentiary to Graterford July 18.

Chief Munshower said questioning of the 400 men in Cohowics' cell block had begun.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

PLACES AND PEOPLE
The largest part of our love in this world is distributed between people and places. Some lavish this love upon one or two, and are satisfied, whereas with many it is distributed far and wide among both people and places.

The very thought of a place that has once endeared itself to us, grows in our mind and we dream of the time when we are enabled to return to it. But to stay too long in a place often cheats us of its charm and fascination, though places differ from people in that they have but one language—the silent one!

With people, a too close association brings out the unlovely and often clouds the finer qualities to a distinct disadvantage.

It takes a very big and experienced human being to be habitually tolerant and understanding—calm and patient.

An overindulgence in the rich things of our material existence robs our finer sensibilities of that exquisite enjoyment of the occasional luxuries which spice life and give to it that incentive for better things. Too much of anything dulls the glamor of it. This is true of people in their associations, and it is true of places.

"Distance lends enchantment" is a familiar phrase, and lives, because it is so true.

We gather but a handful of intimacies in people, but a thousand intimacies in nature keep rushing through our consciousness all through life. The scenes of our childhood, and the playgrounds of our youth, remain precious in our memory forever.

The glamor of wealth and fame grows dim and dull as age creeps on, but the beauties of the simpler things of life, and the humbler associations of our lives, increase as the shadows lengthen.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Things I Like."

Vinson Advocates Huge Tax Reduction

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—Secretary Vinson Monday advocated a $5,000,000,000 tax reduction for 1946 but opposed House provisions which he said would cut off another $2,000,000,000 in 1947.

The Treasury Secretary testified before the Senate Finance Committee, renewing the recommendations he made originally to the House Ways and Means Committee for a 1946 tax cut of $5,175,000,000.

"The House bill," he said, "grants reductions that are reasonably close to that amount for 1946.

"But without further Congressional action, the provisions of the House bill would operate to grant reductions of more than $7,000,000,000 for the calendar year 1947. It would write into law about $2,000,000,000 of tax reduction over and above the $5,000,000,000 reduction applicable in 1946.

"I believe that we should not today prejudice to this extent the tax needs of 1947."

SAYS ELECTION WOULD CUT BACK ON COMMUNISTS

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—General Eisenhower said today "informal reports indicate a fair and impartially supervised election in Berlin would not support the present Communist party dominance" of the city's government.

The general put into his second monthly report on military government in the American zone of occupation a critique on politics in Germany—including those in the Russian zone.

Eisenhower declared that one of the political devices fostered by the Communists in Berlin—a bloc of parties—would have no welcome in the American zone.

Here is what he had to say about Berlin, where the Allied control authority has its headquarters and where the four Allied powers have four zones:

Dominance Not Warranted

"Four organized parties exist there. They were granted permission by the Soviet military authorities to organize and so were functioning when United States forces occupied the U. S. sector of Berlin. The four parties are the Communist party, the Social Democratic party, the Christian-Democratic union, and the Liberal Democratic party.

"The first two are well organized, active and have a basis of former members on which to build. The latter two groups are new parties, though drawing support from middle class, conservative Bourgeois elements formerly associated with the Centrum, the German Democratic party, and the German peoples party. They are less well organized and less active than the Marxist parties. This is especially true of the Liberal Democratic party.

"The Communist party of Germany holds a majority of the strategic posts in the Berlin magistrat and in the administrations of the Berlin municipalities. Informal reports indicate that a fair and impartially supervised election in Berlin would not support the present Communist party dominance of posts but would reveal relatively strong support going to the Social Democrats and the Christian-Democratic union, in that order.

Favors For Communists

"The four parties in Berlin joined, on the initiative of the Communist party, in a united front 'political bloc' intended to unify their policies on all important matters. This joint political organization continued throughout the month under review (August) and succeeded in formulating surface uniformity on major questions, with some evidence of dissent dissatisfaction, especially on the part of the two conservative parties. The device of a political bloc will not be encouraged in the U. S. zone, as it runs counter to traditional American concepts of political activity and vigorous political life in a Democratic sense."

All four Berlin parties publish newspapers, said Eisenhower, adding:

"The newspapers of each party are allocated sufficient newsprint by the Soviet authorities to print 100,000 copies each, except that the Communist paper is permitted to print 200,000. All papers are subject to Soviet censorship."

Coal Strikers Ask Unemployment Pay

Harrisburg, Oct. 16 (AP)—A delegation of soft coal miners came to the state capitol today with the avowed aim of proving at a public hearing they are entitled to jobless compensation in the current mine strike in western Pennsylvania.

John P. Busarello, Pittsburgh president of the United Mine Workers of America, asked the state for a chance to protest a ruling of the Unemployment Compensation Bureau that both supervisory and rank and file miners are engaged in an industrial dispute, thus denying benefits to approximately 60,000 workers until they have been idle at least five weeks.

William H. Chestnut, Secretary of Labor and Industry, in whose department is the Unemployment bureau, said he would be "very glad" to hear the miners' side.

"At the hearing," Busarello said, "we will prove beyond a reasonable doubt that we are right and the Unemployment Compensation Bureau is in error."

Facts About Liming Soils

Every person who grows plants—from flower growers to major crop farmers—should understand the basic principles about the use of lime for soil improvement. Why is lime needed for certain plants and crops? What are its effects in soils? Is lime a fertilizer? Do all plants require lime? These and scores of additional questions crowd around this vital subject.

As applied to its use in agriculture, lime refers to calcium and magnesium oxides. It may be applied in the form of burnt lime, hydrated lime, air-slaked lime, ground limestone, ground oyster shells, marl, or fresh wood ashes. Ground limestone is considered the standard of measure. To equal one ton of ground limestone for neutralizing soil acidity requires 1,120 pounds of burnt lime or 1,480 pounds of hydrated lime. Air-slaked lime, dry marl and ground oyster shells are deemed to have a value equivalent to limestone. From 2,700 to 3,500 pounds of fresh wood ashes is required to equal a ton of ground limestone.

Strictly speaking, lime is not a plant food in the same sense as commercial fertilizers are considered. Primarily it is used to neutralize soil acidity. In fact, this is listed as the first six outstanding effects lime produces when applied to soil needing it. The others are: (2) It supplies plants with calcium and magnesium; (3) It renders heavy clay and silt loams more granular and mellow; (4) It promotes decay of vegetation and the formation of nitrates; (5) It increases the value of commercial fertilizers used; and (6) It counteracts certain poisons which develop where soil acidity is intense.

There is a continuous trend toward acidity or diminishing of calcium of soils. First and greatest source of loss is leaching. This may amount to the equivalent of one ton of burnt lime or approximately 3,500 pounds of ground limestone per acre every six years. Too, every bit of grass consumed by livestock as pasture, every bushel of grain, ton of hay or pound of fruit and vegetables harvested carries away lime.

Alfalfa, for example, removes around 100 pounds a year from each acre. Then, in addition, rain and snow bring sulphur and minor acidifying elements into the soil, while the chemical process or organic matter decay produces acids—all of which exhaust and counteract the lime (calcium) store.

Most plants which man grows for animal feed and for his own food and fiber requirements prefer a neutral or alkaline soil. But there are a few which demand an acid reaction, such as blueberries, strawberries, watermelons, white potatoes

Vandenberg's stand on foreign policy increased his popularity by 40 per cent over a similar survey conducted in 1943, the magazine said. Dewey, despite his loss, still stood among the top five of the favorites.

Vandenberg Gains In GOP Popularity
Chicago, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Republican, official publication of the Republican party, Monday announced a survey showed that Sen. Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich) had enjoyed the greatest gain in party prestige in the past two years while the 1944 presidential standard bearer, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, showed the greatest loss in popularity.

The victims were Jacob H. Dershem, 45, and Calvin E. Dershem, 36. They were operating an electric coal loader and were believed by company officials to have come in contact with a short circuit.

NEW MOVE FOR MERGING ARMY, NAVY DEVELOPS

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's radio plea for complete integration of the nation's armed services prompted Senator Walsh (D-Mass.) today to propose a council of national defense.

The chairman of the Senate naval committee suggested the secretaries of state, war and navy as members with the President running the show as commander in chief.

Walsh's proposal came as an alternative to merger of the army and navy. Most legislators thought MacArthur was talking a merger of this kind when he told the world last night:

"The great lesson for the future is that success in the art of war depends upon a complete integration of the services. In unity will lie military strength."

To Begin Hearings
Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) told a reporter that as he sees it the only way "complete integration" can be obtained would be through the creation of a single military department.

Johnson is acting chairman of the Senate military committee which begins hearings tomorrow on such a proposal. Secretary of war Patterson will be the first witness.

If MacArthur was talking about an army-navy merger, Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) and Peterson (R-Mich) said they were all for it. Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) said no one could argue with MacArthur's statement that victory was won by complete team work between American land, sea and air forces.

"Magnificent Conduct"
"One of the major elements of this great victory," the Michigan senator added, "is that we had the right man in the right place, regardless of integration." He left no doubt he alluded to MacArthur.

MacArthur, in his worldwide radio address from Japan, said the de-

Up Ceiling Prices For Anti-Freeze

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—Ceiling prices for anti-freeze containing at least 95 per cent glycerine has been increased 21 cents a gallon, or mobilization of Japan's once great army and navy had been completed. He praised the "magnificent conduct" of American troops and said the occupation forces had given the Japanese people an insight into "a free man's way of life in actual action and it stunned them into new thoughts and new ideas."

"Revolution, or more properly speaking the evolution, which will restore the dignity and freedom of the common man has begun," he said. "It will take much time and require great patience, but if world opinion will permit of these two essential factors, mankind will be repaid."

Japs "Beaten and Cowed"

The supreme commander asserted he knew of "no demobilization in history, either in war or peace, by our own or by any other country, that has been accomplished so rapidly or so frictionlessly." More than 7,000,000 Japanese in the home islands and outlying areas have laid down their arms, he said.

"Nothing could exceed the abjectness, humiliation and finality of this surrender," he added: "It is not only physically thorough but it has been equally destructive of Japanese spirit. From swagger and arrogance the former Japanese military have passed to servility and fear. They are thoroughly beaten and cowed, and tremble before the terrible retribution of the surrender terms imposed upon their country in punishment for its great sins."

Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning some-times show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

PULPWOOD

a good business to STAY in!

Many people around here started cutting pulpwood during the war as a patriotic measure. They also found it was good business.

We believe pulpwood production will continue to be a good business in peace-time as in war-time for both full-time and part-time producers.

It is a business with no reconversion problem. There are shortages of all kinds of civilian needs that will keep the industry going at top speed for a long time to come. And beyond that are a lot of new industrial uses for pulpwood developed during the war.

Every indication points to continued high demand and good prices for pulpwood.

Baltimore Livestock

Cattle receipts at the opening of this week were made up chiefly of grass-fed steers, with medium and low-grade predominating. Trading in all classes was low. Total receipts today were the largest since a year ago this time. A probable holder of all slaughter classes was evident at this writing.

Average-good slaughter steers steady with last week's close, while lower grades fully 25 cents and as much as 50 cents lower, particularly on medium-grade steers. The top price of the day, $16.35, paid for a lot of top-grade steers that averaged around 1,125 pounds, with a few loads $16.15-16.30. Bulk of the good steers
$15.50-16. Medium to good steers, $15-15.25, with country buyers interested in native weighty steers requiring short additional finish, $13.25-14. Meager supply of common steers, $11.

Heifers largely steady with last week's close; however, late sales were on the weak side and minor declines were noted here and there. Good heifers in meager supply $14 and sparingly $15. Bulk of receipts common and medium grades, $10.50-13.50. Cows largely steady with last week's close, with late sales on the weak side and declines amounting to 25 cents were noted on some late sales. Common and medium cows $9-12, with high-yielding individuals
$12.50-13. Canner's cutters $8.50-$9.50, with shelly canners $5-6.

Bulls steady with last week's close. Good bulls, in limited supply, $12.50-13.50. Good weighty sausage bulls $12, with bulk of the receipts, mostly light and medium weights, $8-11.50. Stocker and feeder trade fairly active and prices largely steady with last week's close. Two loads of choice native feeder steers $14.75 and $15, respectively. Medium and good $12-14; few common offering, $10.

CALVES—Vealers active and steady with last week's close. Mixed lots of good and choice 120-220-pound vealers $15.50, mainly $16.50. Common and medium grades $9.50-11.50, and some $15.50. Stocker and feeder 55. Weighty slaughter calves with practically no reliable outlet. Few good arrivals, not carrying too much weight, $14.
Bulk of the receipts graded common and medium $10-13.

HOGS—Slaughter active and prices unchanged from last week's close due to ceiling limitations. Good and choice barrows and gilts selling 120 pounds $15.50, new ceiling. Good sows $14.50.

SHEEP—Slaughter lambs active and steady with last week's close. The practical top and popular price remained at $15.50.
Mixed lots of good and choice woolled lambs, usually from 30 pound up and including bucks, $15-15.50. Common and medium grade $10.50-13.50, and culls $7.00; however, the supply to sell at this figure was very small. Slaughter ewes active and steady. Choice lightweight wooled and shorn ewes $6.50. Bulk of the receipts graded common to good $2-6, according to grade.

"As Pennsylvanians," the gover-

CHAMPIONSHIP BOXING TO BE REVIVED SOON

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—Revival of championship competition in all boxing divisions soon was predicted today by President Abe J. Greene of the National Boxing Association as he hailed the return to civilian life of all titleholders.

Revealing the first postwar ratings, compiled by a committee headed by Fred J. Saddy, of Milwaukee, Greene announced that notice had been served on all champs that after a "proper conditioning period" they will be expected to defend their crowns against proper contenders.

Joe Louis, Gus Lesnevich and Tony Zale were given a full period of respite from title defense because of their recent discharge from military service but Freddie Cochrane, Ike Williams and Manuel Ortiz were served notice to prepare to take on high-ranking foes.

How They Stand
The rankings:
Heavyweight—Champ., Joe Louis, Detroit; logical contender, Billy Conn, Pittsburgh; outstanding boxers, Jimmy Blinovs, Cleveland; Tami Mauriello, New York; Melio Bettina, Beacon, N. Y.; honorable mention include Joe Baksi, Kulpmont, Pa., and Jersey Joe Walcott, Camden, New Jersey.

Light heavyweight—Champ., Gus Lesnevich, Cliffside, N. J.; logical contenders, Archie Moore, St. Louis, and Freddie Mills, England; outstanding boxers, Lloyd Marshall, Cleveland; Anton Christoforidis, Cleveland; Billy Fox, Philadelphia.

Middleweight—Champ., Tony Zale, Gary, Ind.; logical contenders, Jacob LaMotta, New York; George Abrams, Washington, D. C.; Rocky Graziano, New York and Holman Williams, Detroit; outstanding boxers, Charlie Burley, Pittsburgh; Jimmy Edgar, Detroit; Jock McAvoy, England; honorable mention include Ossie Harris, Pittsburgh.

Other Divisions
Welterweight—Champ., Freddie Cochrane, Elizabeth, N. J.; logical contender, Ray Robinson, New York; outstanding boxers, Tippy Larkin, Garfield, N. J.; Jimmy Doyle, Los Angeles; honorable mention include Sammy Angott, Washington, Pa., and Billy Arnold, Philadelphia.

Lightweight—Champ., Ike Williams, Trenton, N. J.; logical contenders, Beau Jack, Augusta, Ga.; Bob Montgomery, Philadelphia, Willie Joyce, Gary, Ind.

Featherweight—Champ., Sal Bartola, Boston; logical contender, Willie Pep, Hartford, Conn.

Bantamweight—Champ., Manuel Ortiz, El Centro, Calif.; logical contenders, Tony Olivera, San Francisco; Bennie Goldberg, Detroit; Luis Castillo, Mexico.

Flyweight—Champ., Jackie Patterson, England; logical contenders, Joe Curran, England; Dado Marino, Hawaii; Terry Allen, England.

200 STRIKING STUDENTS GO BACK TO BOOKS

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 16 (AP)—The student officer at nearby Forty Fort was not extra busy today as 200 striking high school students returned to their classes after gaining a partial victory over school officials.

The students walked out yesterday protesting what they called unfair officiating at a football game between Forty Fort and Pittston high schools Friday night. Pittston won 13-12.

Meeting with the school's athletic council, a 10-member student committee demanded (1) better officiating at all future football games, (2) sweaters for senior members of the team, and (3) two free tickets for each member of the team for Forty Fort's remaining games.

The board agreed to points one and two, but the third demand was to be considered further.

Tickets On Sale For Shippensburg Game

Adult tickets for the Gettysburg-Shippensburg high school football game to be played here Friday night were placed on sale today at the Peoples drug store and will remain on sale there until game time.

Robert Sheads, faculty manager of athletics, announced that the tickets were placed on sale in order to aid in avoiding congestion at the gates. The tickets are priced 60c, including tax.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—War Dept.: May be Michigan's Fritz Crisler thought it was only polite to answer a question, but he probably let himself in for a pack of trouble when he told New York football writers yesterday that Army's Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard are a better pair of backs than Ohio State's Paul Sarringhaus and Dick Fisher.

From now on, the Buckeyes will be out to make Fritz eat those words—and Sarringhaus' name alone would make quite a mouthful. . . . Fred Fitzsimmons, the old Dodger, and former Phillies pilot, will be business manager of Bill Cox's Brooklyn football club when the All-American conference gets going.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Mike Jacobs reports that his engineers (and what's this world coming to when a fight promoter needs engineers?) say that television will have advanced far enough by next June to pipe the Louis-Conn fight into theaters.

EAR, EAR!
Lt. Eddie Urban, former Lansford, Pa., sports editor, enroute home from the Pacific, heard the first game of the World Series in Los Angeles, second in Long Beach, Calif., third in Omaha, fourth in Dayton, Ohio, fifth in New York, sixth in Philadelphia and the seventh with his Army brogans parked in front of the fireplace at home. . . . and probably a lot of guys who were there wished they could have done the same.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)
Baltimore—Curtis Sheppard, 185½, Pittsburgh, outpointed Perk Daniels, 200, Chicago (12).

Washington—Bee Bee Washington, 160, Washington, outpointed Roy Rovelli, 158½, West New York, N. J. (10).

Providence, R. I.—Joey Angelo, 134½, Philadelphia, outpointed Charley (Cabe) Lewis, 128½, New York (10).

New Britain, Conn.—Joey LaMotta, 152, New York, knocked out Larney Morris, 149, New York (5).

Vets Are Stars In Pro Grid Circles

Chicago, Oct. 17 (AP)—Younger players may be getting ready to push the veterans off their positions in the National football league, but when the official statistics come around, the names of the oldsters continue to top the list.

Only one rising satellite appeared with such veteran stars as Don Hutson, Sammy Baugh, Ken Strong and Ted Fritsch as individual leaders in various departments were officially listed today.

He was Steve Van Buren, sophomore back for the Philadelphia Eagles. Van Buren, a native of Honduras and graduate of Louisville State university took over the individual ground-gaining leadership the past week as he rolled up 93 yards against Detroit to bring his total to 163 in two games, and an average of 12.5 yards per play in 13 attempts.

But along with him was Hutson, leading both pass receivers and scorers; Baugh, leading the passers, and Strong, leading the place-kickers in the field goal department.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16 (AP)—Larry Bloomer, Norristown, Pa., racer, set a new track record in winning the 100-lap "national championship" midjet auto race at the Yellow-jacket Speedway here last night. The time was 24:58.12. Atlanta's Red Redmund was second.

FOOTBALL POLL PLACES CADETS OUT IN FRONT

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—The same five teams that dominated last week's Associated poll to determine the best college elevens in the country hold sway in the tabulations compiled today with Army retaining first place in the Big Ten.

The Cadets garnered 90 nominations for the top spot on the 105 ballots, allowing only 14 for Navy and one for Ohio State.

Army, with 1,035 points, was followed by Navy, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Minnesota in that order, duplicating their rankings of last week. Ten points are given for each first place vote, nine for second, etc. All critics who did not place the West Pointers first on their ticket ranked the Cadets second.

Penn Moves Up
Alabama moved up from seventh to sixth place and Pennsylvania, 49 to 0 victor over North Carolina, hopped from 13th place a week ago to seventh while Indiana and Texas, eighth and 10th respectively, in the first compilation, kept those places in the present counting.

The leading teams, ranked on a basis of 10 points for each first place vote, nine for second, etc. (First place votes in parenthesis):

Army (90)	1,035
Navy (14)	803
Notre Dame	768
Ohio State (1)	655
Minnesota	581
Alabama	511
Pennsylvania	310
Indiana	292
Purdue	184
Texas	117

Second ten: 11—St. Mary's; 12—Georgia; 13—Michigan; 14—Southern California; 15—Oklahoma A and M; 16—Duke; 17—Columbia; 18—Tulsa; 19—Holy Cross.

TOUGH PACE
New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—It will take nothing less than perfection for Arnie Herber to maintain his present National football league passing pace against Pittsburgh next Sunday. The veteran New York Giants pitching ace has completed nine out of nine passes, four of them scoring plays, in league tilts against Pittsburgh and Boston.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16 (AP)—Penn's two ace "kid" backs—Bob Deuber, of Bridgeton, N. J., and Don Schneider—injured in the 49-0 Quaker rout of North Carolina will be available for action when the Red and Blue collides with Navy October 27, team physicians reported.
